

Hobikh Baleswaran graduated with Honours from the Real Property Administration Program at Seneca College in 2016. Since then, Hobikh has obtained experience in assessment, property taxation, and real estate appraisals. Hobikh has been appraising residential properties for about four years specializing in the Greater Toronto Area markets. Hobikh is an AIC member pursuing an AACI designation. Hobikh has received his A.I.M.A. designation with the Institute of Municipal Assessors and is a licensed realtor.

Key experience:

- Assessment
- Property taxation
- Real estate appraisals
- Specializes in the GTA markets

Professional Qualifications:

- Real Property Administration Program Degree at Seneca College – 2016
- AIC member
- A.I.M.A. – Institute of Municipal assessors